We Work®

At Cleveland Vocational Industries, Inc. (CVII) We Work ® to provide employment and training opportunities for individuals with barriers to employment. We help people gain work skills, find work, and maintain employment.

The individuals we serve have goals that are work related. Occasionally we make recommendations if there is a need for increased social skills or basic living skills.

We believe that the more successful an individual is in all aspects of their life the more productive they will be.

Largest and oldest
Human Services
provider for people with barriers to employment in Cleveland County!

Why CVII?

How does your business benefit using our employees?

Tax Incentives: Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC).

Pre-screened: Criminal background, character reference, and drug screening.

Extra training at our expense! Qualified Job Coaches provide on the job training.

Let our over 25 years of experience help you reach your business goals.

CVII is one of the first organizations of this type in the state of NC to provide Supported Employment and Job Coaching Services to adults with barriers to employment!

Testimonies

“Our success rate with these associates has been very good. We would not hesitate to hire another associate from CVII.”

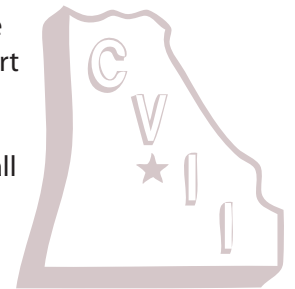

Ronnie Blackburn, Personnel Manager

“The job coaching you provided was consistent with our policies and procedures. Your concern and devotion to customer service during our hiring of an individual from your organization was nothing less than outstanding.”

Karl R. Moss, Superintendent Public Works
